Once the candidate's qualifications, capabilities and aspirations have been examined, the admissions jury will either accept their application or offer the candidate the possibility to sign up for a programme to which they are better suited.

2. DEFERMENT

2.1. An applicant may defer only once the commencement of their programme to a later term, by providing written justification twelve (12) weeks prior to the first day of the programme. The permitted maximum length of the deferment is one (1) year from the original requested entry date for the Bachelor of Business programme.

2.2. In the hypothesis of the accepted deferment, applicable terms, conditions, and tuition fees are those in force at the time of the student's transfer notice. 2.3. No refund shall be made for the cancellation of a programme which has already been deferred.

2.4. If a visa has been refused, the student wishing to defer their enrolment, must send scanned proof of the visa refusal to the school's Admissions Office (parisadmissions@cordobleu.edu) within three (3) days of receiving the visa refusal notification. 3. CANCELLATION

3.1. By the student

- A student who is registered and who has signed their admission proposal, and exercises their right to cancel by registered letter within seven (7) full days from the date of their acceptance, therefore cancelling their enrolment, will be reimbursed the total the sums paid, excluding the application fee, within thirty (30) days from the date at which the right was exercised.

- Once the right to cancel period has expired, a student who cancels their enrolment more than twelve (12) weeks before the beginning of the chosen intake for any reason, excluding unforeseen or fortuitous circumstances which are duly determined, will be reimbursed the full tuition fees excluding an amount of 1000 € (corresponding to the 200 € application fee and part of the deposit totalling 800 €). All cancellation demands should be sent by email to the Admissions Office (parisadmissions@cordobleu.edu).

- If a visa has been refused, a student who wishes to cancel their enrolment and be reimbursed all fees paid (except the non-refundable application fee of 200 €) must inform the Admissions Office by email (parisadmissions@cordobleu.edu) within three (3) days of receiving the visa refusal notification. After this time, and without any proof (copy of passport with visa refusal stamp, letter from the Consulate), the cancellation request cannot be granted and a reimbursement will not be made.

- There will be no reimbursement for any cancellation received 12 weeks or less prior to orientation day.

Dropping-out during the programme

If a student cannot carry out their programme, for any reason, excluding unforeseen or fortuitous circumstances which are duly determined, Le Cordon Bleu will grant neither a reimbursement, nor a reduction, and this from day one of the intake.

3.2. By Le Cordon Bleu

- If the programme is cancelled by Le Cordon Bleu, for any reason, excluding unforeseen or fortuitous circumstances which are duly determined, all application and tuition fees paid by the student will be completely reimbursed, or transferred, with the student's permission, to another programme of their choice.

- If following unforeseen or fortuitous circumstances which are duly determined, Le Cordon Bleu is unable to teach the chosen training programme, a reimbursement will be granted to the student on a pro-rata basis determined by the numbers of lessons that have not been taught.

Only the candidate, and no other individual, has the right to sign this application form.

The school reserves the right in its absolute discretion to modify the enrolment procedure and/or the fees, the organisation, the structure of any or all of its programmes.

I understand that I am required to notify Le Cordon Bleu of any amendments regarding the stated information. Misrepresentation of any or all material can result in non acceptance or termination of enrolment without any reimbursement of fees paid.
